

ZERO-SORT SPECIFICATIONS
&
TRANSFER STATION GUIDELINES
 Beginning March 12th 2016

Items	How Zero-Sort Wants Items	Where It Goes
Plastics; #1-7; up to 5 gallon buckets Paper: White paper, colored paper, newspaper (all sections and inserts), cardboard, boxboard, shredded paper, magazines, phone books, soft cover books, mail and greeting cards, junk mail and envelopes, juice and milk cartons, triangular paper cups (from water fountains), file folder, office paper and egg cartons Pizza boxes Aluminum foil and aluminum pans, cat food cans Juice boxes Empty tin and aerosol cans	CLEAN, CLEAN, CLEAN Remove handles from 5 gallon buckets No containers that held automotive products or hazardous material No plastic bags Do not bundle newspapers or magazines Break down cardboard, smaller pieces are better Break down boxboard Remove greasy parts from pizza boxes & Trash it! Caps are ok on; empty & rinse NOTHING contaminated with food. No coffee cups or Styrofoam cups. No Styrofoam No glass Hard cover books; remove cover	Into Recycle containers, as marked
Glass -All colors Jars, bottles, porcelain, plates, glass coffee cups	No automotive glass No safety glass No light bulbs No head lamps	Place in glass bunker- use CAUTION due to flying glass
Aluminum cans	NO cat food cans	Place in building
Textiles	Clean and dry	Place in building
Oil recycling	Used oil, clean only - no gas mixed within	Give to attendant, DO NOT LEAVE outside of oil shed
Tire recycling	All sizes accepted; rims ok	Place on tire pile after paying the attendant

Scrap metal	No propane tanks, LP Tank No helium tanks No microwaves Nothing that contains mercury No items containing liquid	Place in scrap metal dumpster after paying the attendant
Electronic recycling	Anything with a cord	Place in trailer after paying the attendant
LP tanks and helium tanks	1lb., 20 lb. and larger sizes	Place on pallet after paying the attendant
Burn pile	Nothing over 5 inches in diameter No plywood No painted wood No stumps	Accepted on the first and last Saturday of the month ONLY. Must have load inspected prior to putting on the burn pile
Free table	No TV's or computers Anything that can be used by someone else	Place under roof on table after checking with attendant
Car/truck battery	Any size	Place in trailer
Rechargeable battery	All sizes; rechargeable only	Give to attendant

Any questions? Please ask the attendant!